11th November 2018; Remembrance Sunday (3rd before Advent)

Gospel Reading

Mark 1.14-20

¹⁴Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, ¹⁵and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.'

¹⁶As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fish for people.'¹⁸And immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets.

²⁰Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

As it is Remembrance Sunday alternative readings relevant to Remembrance may be used.

Other Readings

Jonah 3.1-5, 10;
Psalm 62.5-end;
Hebrews 9.24-end

Collect

God, our refuge and strength, bring near the day when wars shall cease and poverty and pain shall end, that earth may know the peace of heaven through Jesus Christ our Lord.

This year we mark the centenary of the end of World War 1. On Remembrance Sunday 11th November 2018, people around the Commonwealth will be reflecting on the lives that were changed irrevocably, and those that were lost. Some 65 million men were mobilised across Europe during World War 1. Nearly a third of them – some 21 million – were wounded. Another 8.5 million were killed and some 7.7 million were taken prisoners of war. All of them had family and friends whose lives were changed forever by the events of 1914-1918. This year gives us the chance to remember, but also to pray and work for peace, looking forward with hope.

Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury, provided the following statement on Remembrance;

When we remember 1918, we reflect on a time of great hope and great sadness for our country. We recall our part in the horrors of war and the darkness that drives humanity to violence. But we also remember the promise of peace.

On 4 August 1918, many in this country came together with King George V to pray for peace: 100 days later the Great War ended.

Our God is one who brings peace to hearts and calls us not only to stop violence, but to seek reconciliation. His reconciliation asks that we disempower memories of destruction and their hold over individuals and societies. Through this we can learn to approach difference with curiosity and compassion, rather than fear – and begin to flourish together in previously unthinkable ways.

we place them all in your hands and ask that you be with them and those we know who are struggling or suffering at this time; help them in their need and give them a sense of peace and joy.

Gospel Reading

Mark 13.1-8

¹As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' ²Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.'

³When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?'

⁵Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. ⁶Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. ⁸For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.

BRAYDON BROOK NEWS

The 18th November is the feast day of St. Odo of Cluny. Odo was born around 880 and started his monastic life at the monastery of Baume-les-Messieurs – there he read the Rule of St. Benedict and was shocked at how far his life fell short of rules of perfection laid down by St. Benedict. In time he became the second Abbot of Cluny where he ruled with a rod of iron in an attempt to gain the perfection laid down by St. Benedict. Between 936 and 942 Odo made three trips to Rome to intercede and keep the peace between the Pope and Hugh of Provence, who called himself the "King of Italy" but who had considerable respect for Odo. It was on the journey back his 3rd trip that Odo died at the monastery of St. Julian at Tours on 18th November 942.
