Psalm 84 verses 1 and 3

- 1) How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts!
- 3) Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Although the church is closed, the swallow has made her nest in the porch. We have special hammocks to stop the mess. Whether you like the birds or not; you must admire them, they travel thousands of miles to raise offspring. Not knowing what they will find, they stay a while then leave to return another year. Nature has so much to teach us, the Bible tells us that God looks after each bird, he knows what happens to them. God also knows about us, he knows the number of hairs on our head, he understands us. He cares about each of us in all we do. So speak to Him.

Lord we place before you our worries and cares, please show us the way forward and give us strength to follow your way. Lord we place those who are struggling or ill in your care and ask that you will surround them with peace and joy and give them hope for the future. Amen.
